VINELAND - Inspira's IMPACT Parent Linking Program recently hosted "Dads Take Your Child to School Day," a superhero-themed event for students' fathers and other male figures,

The event was attended by 48 fathers, stepfathers, grandfathers, uncles, brothers, foster fathers and other male role models. Children and dads from Inspira IMPACT's Parent Linking, Childcare and Wrap-Around Programs were invited to participate.

Inspira IMPACT (Innovative Model for Preschool and Community Teaming) is a collaboration with local school districts that provides an array of programs designed to improve the health and well-being of young people and their families.
